

Uniquely Me Therapies, LLC Supervision Contract

This supervision agreement is made on 10-12-23 between Becky J. Staudacher, MS, BCBA, LBA and Clinton L. Williams for supervision of activities under the BACB's supervised fieldwork requirements.

Supervised Fieldwork Activities and Training Objectives:

During the supervised fieldwork, the trainee will engage in the following types of activities:

- The BACB Task List components
- Research in the area that is required for the client that is being worked with
- Observations and shadowing of the Supervisor
- Report writing
- Program design
- Research in the area that the trainee would like to pursue
- Basic foundations in Ethics and Behavior Analysis

By the conclusion of the agreed contract, the trainee will have achieved the following objectives:

- The ability to use behavioral analysis concepts within a session with 100% accuracy across 5 consecutive supervision sessions
- The ability to write a comprehensive report on an assessment and/or progress note (mock) with 90% accuracy across 5 consecutive reports.
- The ability to complete research within the field of behavior analysis, including a short report on the findings
- The ability to write programs technologically and oversee the progress of the programming with 90% accuracy across 5 consecutive programs
- The ability to use knowledge to apply behavior analysis techniques to a variety of scenarios within a given context with 90% accuracy across 5 consecutive supervision meetings.

Trainee agrees to do the following:

- Provide a completed Fieldwork Checklist and Tip Sheet to the supervisor before the outset of the supervised fieldwork.
- Begin supervised fieldwork only after starting qualifying coursework.
- Compensate the supervisor at an hourly rate of $60 per hour.
- Complete sessions assigned for the client. All hours that are direct with the supervisor (including meetings) will be compensated at the hourly rate given to the RBT.
- There may be times that the work is not compensated (this includes research outside of sessions and any direct contact with the supervisor).
- Attend additional professional meetings relevant to the supervised fieldwork, such as the monthly Nevada ABA Board meetings which may not count toward the BACB's supervised fieldwork requirements.

Supervisor(s) agree to do the following:

- Meet and maintain the BACB's supervision qualification requirements as stated in the current BCBA Handbook and provide proof of eligibility to the trainee before the outset of the supervised fieldwork.
- Not accept remuneration from the trainee above the negotiated hourly rate or salary identified above.
- Provide oversight and training in accordance with the BACB's supervision requirements (e.g., nature of supervision, responsibilities of the supervisor) and current ethics code (e.g., providing supervision to the trainee only within the boundaries of their competence, evaluating the effects of their supervision).
- Provide ongoing documented performance feedback to the trainee in accordance with the current ethics code, including, but not limited to, providing feedback on the trainee's progress toward stated training objectives (e.g., providing specific areas in which the trainee is making adequate or inadequate progress) and client interactions.
- Sign the Monthly and Final Fieldwork Verification Forms if the supervised fieldwork hours are satisfactorily completed.

Trainee and Supervisor(s) agree to do the following:

- Meet all of the BACB's supervised fieldwork requirements (e.g., requirements for documentation, acceptable activities, structure of supervision) for the duration of the supervised fieldwork.
- Stay up to date on changes made to the BACB's supervised fieldwork requirements.
- Comply with all applicable laws, licensure requirements, codes of conduct/ethics, reporting requirements (e.g., mandated reporting, reporting to funding sources or licensure board, self-reporting to the BACB, reporting instances of misrepresentation by others), and professional practice requirements related to their various roles.
- Keep all information related to current or potential clients, including, but not limited to, medical or clinical information, confidential.
- Ensure that clients consent to the observation of service delivery and the sharing of confidential client information.
- Work together to facilitate in-depth discussions about and an understanding of professional and personal issues affecting practice to improve the trainee's behavior-analytic expertise and ensure that progress is being made toward the identified training objectives.
- Work collaboratively to evaluate the effects of the supervision (e.g., review and respond to trainee progress and feedback) and address any identified issues.
- Protect the time and space for supervision by keeping to agreed-upon appointments and times allotted. Privacy will be respected and interruptions avoided. Any party requiring a variance in schedule will notify the other party as early as possible if rescheduling of supervision is needed.
- Terminate the supervisory relationship only in the following situations:
 - Supervised fieldwork hours are completed satisfactorily.
 - Progress is not made after 10 instances of corrective feedback.
 - Egregious violations of the ethics code occur.
- Retain a copy of all supervision documentation for at least seven years from the date of the final supervision meeting.

Termination:

This agreement shall become effective on 0.19.23 and shall remain in effect until either party terminates this agreement by providing 10 day's advance written notice to the other of the intention to terminate. In the event of termination, the hours earned up until this point shall survive and remain valid.

Entire Agreement: This contract contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. Any changes to this contract should be reflected in a Contract Addendum section attached to the end of this document and signed and dated by all parties or should result in a termination of this contract and the initiation of a new, revised contract.
